Tri-Mer Strengthens Leadership with Appointment of Matthew Borg as Equity Partner and Director

The Tri-Mer Group, a leading firm in corporate services, private client solutions, and assurance services, proudly announce the appointment of Matthew Borg as equity partner and director of its companies. Borg's approval by the Malta Financial Services Authority (MFSA) marks a significant strengthening of the firm's leadership team.

With an extensive background in accountancy, tax and auditing, Matthew Borg brings a wealth of expertise to his new roles. Having joined Tri-Mer in 2006, Borg's dedication and professionalism have been integral to the firm's success. His credentials include being a certified public accountant and registered auditor, a fellow of prestigious accounting institutions including the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants and the Malta Institute of Accountants, along with holding a Diploma in Taxation issued by the Malta Institute of Taxation.

"We are delighted to welcome Matthew to the partnership," stated Ian Mercieca, Marco Mercieca, and Aaron Meli, the current partners at Tri-Mer. "His appointment represents a strategic investment in our future, augmenting our ability to serve both new and existing clients. Matthew's elevation to directorship within its companies, entrusted with the license for Trustee Services and Corporate Services, is a natural step within Matthew's career considering the professionalism and dedication demonstrated over his tenure with us."

Established in 2005, Tri-Mer is committed to delivering tailored, high-quality services to clients operating in Malta or seeking relocation to the region. The firm prides itself on maintaining the highest standards of professionalism and ethics while offering comprehensive corporate and personal solutions. As a member of BKR International, Tri-Mer Services Limited serves a distinguished clientele and enjoys a sterling reputation built upon dedication, professionalism, and a client-centric approach.
