

The Residence Programme

Explore the residency and tax advantages available to EU, EEA, or Swiss nationals under The Residence Programme, excluding Maltese nationals.

Introduction to the Malta Residence Programme

An Overview of the Opportunities

- Purpose

The Residence Programme is designed to attract EU, EEA, or Swiss nationals and their dependents who are not domiciled in Malta. This initiative aims to encourage foreign individuals to relocate, thereby boosting the local economy and enhancing the multicultural fabric of Malta.

- Benefits

One of the most appealing benefits of the Residence Programme is the flat tax rate of 15% on foreign-source income that is remitted to Malta, and may also benefit from double tax relief.

- Administrative Fees

There is a non-refundable one-off registration fee of €6,000 (€5,500 in the case of applications involving a qualifying property holding in the south of Malta) must be paid upon application.

Eligibility Criteria

Understanding the Criteria for Residency in Malta

Nationality Requirements

Applicants must hold citizenship as an EU, EEA, or Swiss national, with the exception of Maltese nationals. This requirement ensures that the program is primarily open to foreigners looking to reside in Malta.

Leased Property: €9,600/year (Malta) & €8,750/year (South of Malta or Gozo).

Other Requirements

- The individual be in possession of a valid travel document and health insurance for himself and his dependents.
 - The individual must continue to have stable resources for himself and his dependents.

Exclusions

Individuals cannot benefit under the Residents Scheme Regulations, the High Net Worth Individuals Rules, the Malta Retirement Programme Rules, the Global Residence Programme Rules, the Qualifying Employment in Innovation and Creativity Rules or the Highly Qualified Persons Rules.

Tax and Residency Conditions
